

Michelle Moone Bio

Born and raised in Columbus, Ohio, Michelle Moone holds a BA in psychology from Ohio State University and a Master's degree from Ashford University. Currently seated as Administrative Coordinator at McGraw Hill, Michelle is recognized on the national recommended reading list for Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA). Championing children in both the adoption and foster care systems, she is the COO of the 501(c)3 charity, FosterHub.

Working alongside Michelle Mays, putting her passion on paper, Michelle is co-author of "Dumpster Doll: The Early Years" and "Dumpster Doll: Adolescence" as part of the three-part book series.